To Dr George Yi
School of Information Studies
Charles Sturt University, Australia

Dear Dr Yi,

It is a great pleasure to announce your appointment as an Editor of the Journal of Aussie-Sino Studies (JASS). By accepting this appointment, your name will appear in the member list of "the Editorial Board" on each issue cover page of JASS as well as its websites. The appointment will be for three years from 1 September 2023 to 31 August 2026.

As an editorial board member, you will be expected to:

- Recommend high-quality papers for publication in JASS
- Coordinate indexes and citations of JASS
- Review submitted papers or recommend referees
- Take vital decision on paper acceptance or rejection
- Support to the quality control of JASS
- Promote JASS in various ways, e.g., to promote the journal at relevant conferences and other events.

The JASS is a multi-discipline, peer-reviewed, open-access, comprehensive international journal (ISSN: 2204-6135; AN: 54116474), which has been approved by the National Library of Australia and abstracted and indexed by CNKI and full-text database in www.cnki.net. The JASS is published by the Sino-Aussie Cooperation Centre for Educational Study and Service, Australia, which aims to build a Bridge of Understanding and Cooperation based on sharing knowledge between the North and South.
